Hongkong, October 29, 1868. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS. Als Medicine is universally admitted to be the most efficacious remedy known to the world. No preparation is so suitable to the climates of India and China as this line and invigorating medicine. is particularly adapted to the constitution of European ladies, as it is never failing in its effects in all diseases peculiar to females, while those who are attenuated by the debilitating effects of the above climates will find in this wonderful remedy a kind of talisman whereby they may insure a restoration to robust health.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. The science of Medicine has never before produced any remedy that can be compared to this wonderful Ointment, as it cares after all other means have failed, all wounds, sores, ulcers, and also the most inveterate skin diseases peculiar to the climates of India and China. It is the true friend of the Soldier and Civilian, as cer tain old sores can be removed by it that cannot be conquered by any other treat.

lowing under date Manila, 28th October I know you are interested in what we are doing here for the Duke of Edinburgh The Done are making fearful efforts for his reception i the Thestre has been turned into a Ball Room at immense expense, some $8,000, and in this, the Baile d'Etiquette is to take place. We the Britishers, give the "Baile de Saya" two days later in the same building. This latter should "go off" better than the former, as it is only in the "Filipines" that such a sight can be seen.
The supper alone will cost $3,000. The illuminations and fireworks will be really grand, the whole affair will cost some $30,000. A magnificent klock is being prected in which H. R. H. will be received. and the National Anthem, do, will be UNDER DESPATCH.

THE ILLUMINATIONS.
Subjoined we give a list of intended illuminations by which the British and other residents of Hongkong propose manifesting their pleasure at the visit of H. REH. the Duke of Edinburgh this Colony. We have compiled it order that our readers may have their currouty directed in searching for th sible, perhaps probable, that some which from their magnitude or beauty ough to be included in the list, have been omitted: Any such omission we shall be happy to rectify on being informed of it and we hope to make the list as complet as possible for our Overland edition; in which the whole proceedings relating the Prince's reception at Shanghai, as well as at Hongkong, will appear. illuminations generally are on a scal much larger and more universal that was anticipated, so much so, indeed, that it will not be possible to view them al in one evening. We venture to suggest therefore, that there may be a second hight of exhibition, at any rate of the principal transparencies and designs; and as the China-Mail is always prepared to accept the consequences of its own we shall if necessary set the example of a double illumination, our

MESSES, AUGUSTINE, HEARD AND CO. Six transparencies, three on each floor the lower consisting of a $1000 Greenback (17 dt. by 12 ft.), with allegorical figures of Hope and Peace on either side. The windows cornices of the upper story of building are surrounded with gas jets and it is much to be regretted that the roadway affords so, little room for seeing this very successful illumination in its entirety.

MESSES. RUSSELL AND CO. Five transparencies, the three lower consisting in a chromatrope star with Welcome" on the ribband, and figures representing "Prudence" and "Plenty on one side and "Justice" and merce" on the other. The star of set has excited great admiration, and the gas fittings are most successfully applied to do justice to the painting. "Plenty" regarded by some as the best painting of MESSES, GUEDES AND CO. A transparency of the Portuguese and English Arms united, from a design by E. R. Belilios, R. Babibhov and Mr. H. themselves, with the Portuguese arms underneath. This is carried out companion pictures in the other compart- with lanterns and is after the peculiar type of ments of the Hotel.

Are more indebted to the gas fitter that the artist, but both have done their worl in a most successful manner. The transpe remoy, a portrait of Her Majesty, is regard ed as a good painting. We may note that she is represented with the celebrated Kohi noor, a model of the riginal being attached to her necklade. The transparency is any mounted by a Crown of gas. The moth God bless the Empress of India is executed in piping, the letters being about 18 inches high, and running whole length of the building. grams are placed on each side of the trait and the whole may be pronounced unqualified success. A line of jets run along the cornice under the motto, up each post and along the eaves of the building, and the street is thus illuminated for a considerable distance. In the verendah over the payement a large number of Chinese lanterns with moveable figures worked by the hot air from the candles contribute to the magnificent effect of perhaps the finest illumination in Queen's Road.

The foregoing illuminations were fitted by Mr Handley for Mesers Wilson and Salway, and the transparencies were paint-

It is nos oval device of imitation diamonds and rubies, in the centre of which is the arms of the Duke of Edinburgh painted on stained glass. In addition the front of the building will be decked with English. American and French flags, and everground. The principal piece in this illumination is a transparency (ten feet by six) representing very fairly the Castle of Edinburgh under which is the Regalia of Sootland. The painting is by Chinese, and while very appropriate is not at all a bad copy from a photograph. The row is terminated on either end by archways in the same style of architecture as the front age of the buildings, in which the Jones are supposed to protect the street at both emis. In order fully to carry out this novel idea, a series of Chinese thestrical representations (in figures moved by live rata) are displayed under the versually ooking structure; and here are the principal chandeliers and pendant lamps, which ight up the whole street. An improvedent will be made by the hanging of lamps the outer front of the erection, which gives a fine effect to the peculiar Oriental appearance of the superficial decoration.

HE "TREATY PORTS OF CHINA & JAPAN," AND "NOTES AND QUERIES ON CHINA AND JAPAN." EXTRACTS FROM REVIEWS.

From the "Straits Times," July 27, 1868.) Some time ago we had occasion to remark. upon the progress that Literature as represcuted by the Press had made and was making in the East, and our attention has again been called to the subject by the receipt of a Hongkong publication which deserves some notice and which we have much pleasure in introducing to the knowledge of our readers. We allude to Notes and Queries on China and Japan, published monthly by Mr Saint, the proprietor of the China Mail newspaper. This publication is well printed on good paper, and in aize and shape is very like its well-known namesake or prototype at home, and is equally a mine containing very curious and useful information regarding the language, litersture, history, manners and customs of the Chinese and in a less degree of the Japanese. It says a good deal for the extent and stability of the footing of Europeans in China, that such a publication as this should be established and conducted with apparently successful vigour.

The publication is altogether, a very interesting one, and wishing it every success, we commend it to the attention and support

(From the "Friend of India," June 4, 1868. We acknowledge with thanks the receipt of the numbers for the current year of Notes and Queries." a most deserving Anglo-Chinese menthly, edited by Mr N. B. Dennys, whose "Treaty Ports of China and Japan" are so well known. From the names attached to the "Notes" we can see that the contributors include some of the best Chinese scholars in the East. Its interest is not confined to China, and it wil be of valuable assistance to all scholars, who have directed their attention towards the subject of Buddhism and its literature, and generally to all who are interested in oriental antiquities. It deserves to be better known in India.

This really useful volume ["Treaty Ports considerably enhance its value. * * * We have thus given in outline some of the more prominent portions of the chapter devoted to Canton, as a specimen of the whole volume. Other chapters treating of Macao, Formosa, Ningpo, Shanghae, and the remainder of the treaty ports, we can only enumerate. The pages describing Peking, the capital, are so interesting, and contain so much that is new to European readers respecting its history, public buildings, and general characteristics, that we would fain transfer them to our columns. A complete and intelligible plan of the Im-accurate notion of the relative position of its divisions, streets, and places. In the introductory chapter to the notices of the Treaty Ports of Japan will be found a succinct history of that Empire, together with remarks on its government, geography, still comparatively, unknown to Europeans. The descriptions of Nagasaki, Yedo, Yokolianis, and the other Treaty Ports of Japan, are as elaborate and entertaining as those of the Chinese ports. A copious index and a useful appendix containing many hints and much appropriate advice to travellers and others, is also included in the volume. The entire work affords a vast amount of information, pleasantly written, and we doubt not will be perused with interest by many who will never visit the
